ABOUT: Cytoluminator is a research organization located in the Philippines providing access to ground-breaking cancer and autoimmune treatments via an online based medical culture. Cytoluminator's mission is to effectively communicate the truth about cancer, autoimmune disorders, its causative agents, and to provide a treatment protocol that could result in the complete elimination of conditions.

We have developed a unique program to help those that can't travel for alternative treatment of their cancer or autoimmune disease. The program will consist of allowing participants to utilize our breakthrough formulas in order to try and give the body a benefit in overcoming their cancer or autoimmune disorder. Full support and consultations during the period of active participation will be available. We make no cure claims for any of our formulas.

If during a one-year period from the beginning of your participation should you decide to come to us for complete treatment by our qualified medical staff, we will offer such treatment at a discounted price of 10 percent.

Our formulas:

NANO *:

This formula is developed through a breakthrough process in order to try and enter into a cell that is compromised by cancer or autoimmune disorder. When it does enter into such cell the mechanism of the formula should interrupt the cell's DNA for the purpose of stopping cell replication thereby creating apoptosis. It further stops glycolysis from within the cancer cells. Improvement in the condition of the patient should be result.

CytoDefense *:

This formula is developed to assist in the body's immune response to bacterial, viral and fungal infections. The proprietary nanoparticle formula consisting of a combination copper, sulphur, silver, nitrogen, zinc, h2o and methylene blue all having anti-bacterial, anti-viral and anti-fungal properties should help in fighting such infections topically as well as internally. The formula is developed to create a nano particle liquid formula allowing it to attack such infections from within the bacteria, virus or fungus.

Participation in the Cytolumintor Complete Care Program, means once you have joined the program you are entitled to consult with Cytoluminator staff when needed and acquire said formulas for your use in obtaining an improvement in your cancer or autoimmune disorder condition. Such formulas will be sent to you through an agency, organization or website who have agreed to help disseminate our information for the sole purpose of helping others to help themselves.

A donation of $3000 is suggested for full participation in the program to cover our expenses, costs of disseminating information and formulas to such agencies, organizations or websites to be readily available for members. In order to join the program, a signed copy of this document needs to be delivered to us at this address: cytoluminatoradmissions@gmail.com and your donation received via wire transfer [ask us for wire transfer information] or paypal account:

cytoluminatoradmissions@gmail.com [note friend to friend must be used to avoid unnecessary fees]
You may split your donation between paypal and wire transfer.

If you choose to transfer to our facility in the Philippines for full treatment of added formulas and our 4th Generation PDT to help create an immune response you may do so at anytime during the one year period of participation. A 10 percent discount will be applied to the treatment fee due.

I, [name] , of [town, state or province and country] , hereby have read and agree with this document and disclaimer below on [this date] . A donation of the suggested amount will be sent via [please indicate] and will expect a consultation to discuss my needs in the program via [your email] or [Skype ID] .
